

CHANGING LIVES

Program Chairs – Mathematics (2 Openings)

Ivy Tech Community College – Central Indiana
Indianapolis, IN

Developmental Math Chair Mathematics Program Chair

Manage all elements of mathematics program, including related enrollment management, program administration, and human resource management, ensuring coordination with academic and non-academic departments. Provide vision and leadership in planning, organizing, operating, and evaluating the department and the division. Perform instructor responsibilities as required. Act as liaison for the department within the AA Division, the College and the community. Supervise full-time & adjunct faculty, departmental support staff, and students in a class, lab or clinical setting. Fully supports the College's mission and strategic plan initiatives.

(Developmental Math Chair requirements)

Master's degree or higher in Math, from a regionally accredited institution, or a Master's degree with 18 graduate semester credit hours in math along with significant supervisory and management experience and excellent verbal and written communication skills.

(Mathematics Program Chair requirements)

Master's degree or higher, from a regionally accredited institution, in mathematics or mathematics education, or a Master's degree in education with 18 graduate semester credit hours in mathematics courses.

For more details or to apply please go to <http://jobs.ivytech.edu>. Posting deadline – March 9th (Program) and March 16th (Developmental). EEOC/AA employer.