MATHEDCC - Rules of Conduct

By subscribing to MATHEDCC, you agree that you have read and will follow the rules and guidelines set for the discussions. AMATYC reserves the right to suspend membership on the list for those who violate these rules.

MATHEDCC Do's

- Problem-solve by seeking the advice and the experience of your peers.
- Discuss best practices with people in mathematics education.
- Include a signature tag on all messages. Include your name, college, location, and email address.
- Be professional. All defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, or illegal materials are strictly prohibited. Do not say anything on MATHEDCC that you do not want the world or your dean to see and attribute to you twenty years from now.
- State concisely and clearly the specific topic of the comments in the subject line. This allows members to respond more appropriately to your email.
- Include only the relevant portions of the original message in your reply. Delete any header information, and put your response before the original email.
- Send messages such as "thanks for the information" or "me, too" to individual that posed the information—not to the entire list.
- Gain permission to reprint copyrighted material before posting it. If you post information that is not your original work or ideas, please specify the original source of your information. Do not post anything that is not original unless it meets the "fair use" guidelines of copyright law, or unless you have permission from the original source. When posting materials, the poster voluntarily presents him/herself as the copyright owner or has received permission to reprint copyrighted materials.

If you ever want to remove yourself from MATHEDCC, you can send an email to majordomo@mathforum.org with the following command in the body of your email message: unsubscribe MATHEDCC.

MATHEDCC Don'ts

- Don't challenge or attack others. The discussions on the lists are meant to stimulate conversation not to create contention. Let others have their say, just as you may.
- Don't email commercial messages.
- Don't spam this list. Spammers will be removed from the list immediately.
- Don't email anything in a MATHEDCC message that you would not want the world to see or that you would not want anyone to know came from you. All defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, or illegal materials are strictly prohibited, and the poster will be removed from the list immediately.
